Jesus Moments

March has been a busy month for us, presenting in 5 churches across 4 states. However, in the midst of this busy time, we are thankful for opportunities to meet new people and share the gospel. Recently Olivia went to a nail salon with other missionary wives and she was able to witness to the technician doing her nails. He is a Vietnamese Catholic and was open to talking about church but was not receptive to the gospel at that time. We pray over those seeds that have been planted though and we know God's Word will not return void.

Additionally, Olivia was able to talk with a woman at a church we were visiting about surrendering to missions. This woman had just recently been baptized and has a heart for the mission field. She found encouragement through Olivia's openness in her testimony, and we pray for her as she seeks God's will for her life, and He faithfully equips her for His good works.

Booking Calendar

The Lord has given us a busy first quarter of the year, having presented in 13 churches so far, most of which have taken us on for support. Our Fall 2022 schedule is filling up quickly, but we have a lot of open dates over the summer. Be praying with us that God will open doors this summer for us to share our burden for Chile.
