When Opportunity Knocks

While having a family game night around the kitchen table of a mission apartment in San Antonio, we had an unexpected knock on the front door. When Jon answered the door, the man outside said, tearfully, "I'm not a praying man, but I really need prayer right now." As they spoke, Jon learned the man, Ivan, lived close to the church and had seen the pastor frequently outside with a sign offering to pray for anyone who needed it. Ivan, who is an Air Force medic, was struggling with PTSD and the effects of his PTSD on his wife and young family. After speaking for a long time, Jon was able to lead Ivan to the Lord! Ivan attended church services that Sunday, and we are praying that he continues to grow in the Lord. Please join us in praying for Ivan and his family!

Deputation Update

Much of our time this month was split between Texas and Ohio. We are so excited to have presented our burden in several churches, made many personal connections, and gained new ministry partners! Jon even had the opportunity to preach in Spanish for the first time at Iglesia Bautista Betesda, in the border town of McAllen, Texas. Olivia was also able to share her testimony and a devotion with the ladies of IBB with the help of a translator. Being able to share our hearts and teach at a Spanish-speaking church is particularly special for us, as it is such a thrilling glimpse of the ministry to which God has specifically called us.
